

BREEDERS TALK

BLUE!

EFFAB stands up for animal breeding

FABRE TP

Ensuring the representation of member interests at the EU level

- European policy and legislation
- Supporting and promoting responsible and balanced breeding - Code EFABAR
- Engaging dialogue about Animal Breeding and reproduction

Knowledge provider in EU projects = “Translating science” + Stakeholders engagement + Dissemination

FABRE TP

- Develop research and innovation agendas and set priorities
- Support innovation
- Building bridges between the private and research sectors
- Promoting research and innovation in animal breeding

PROGRAMME

Welcoming address:

David Bassett | EATiP
Ana Granados | EFFAB / FABRE TP

Opening talks

Gene editing in Europe – a policy status, by Frank Swartenbroux | EC DG SANTE Biotechnology unit

Gene editing - what is it about? Diego Robledo | Roslin Institute

Presentations

Targeting sterility in fish, by Anna Wargelius | Institute of Marine Research

Disease resistance, by Ross Houston | Benchmark Genetics

Salmon lice resistance, by Tone-Kari Knutsdatter Østbye | Nofima

Gene editing approaches, by Alan Tinch | Center of Aquaculture Technologies

Panel discussion with speakers and FABRE TP + EATiP

Webinar conclusion

House Rules

If you have any questions to the panelist please ask in the Q&A box.

Report any technical issues through the chat box or send an email to: effab@effab.info

Please note that the webinar will be recorded and shared on our website and social media.

A couple of days after the webinar you will receive a short report with main take outs and the presentations from today's session.

Go to www.menti.com

Enter the code

7298 7389

